Organization Narrative

Goodwin is a leading Am Law 50 and Global 50 law firm, with offices across the United States and in Europe and Asia. With more than 1,000 lawyers, Goodwin offers innovative counsel and delivers results through a client-centric and collaborative approach. We're business-oriented lawyers equally comfortable in the boardroom and the courtroom. Our success is unprecedented.

Our firm's culture fosters an open, inclusive and collegial atmosphere. We are a cohesive group of people from different backgrounds, working together on challenging deals and complex cases. The attorneys you met during the interview process were very impressed with your background and value your experience. There is no doubt that you will become an integral member of our team and assist in furthering our strategic growth goals.

Summer Program

Boston, Los Angeles, New York, San Francisco, Silicon Valley or Washington DC. The summer experience is a platform to witness first-hand the work we do for our clients by observing client meetings, court hearings, depositions, negotiations and attending business unit meetings. We also bring our summer associates together during the summer program to attend a firm-wide retreat. You will work, learn and connect with peers, associates and partners at the firm. Our summer associates enjoy the flexibility to work on a wide variety of both business transactions and litigation cases, providing you the opportunity to learn about matters across departments and from a range of practice areas. You will leave our program with valuable mentors, a large professional and social network, and a very good idea of what it's like to work at Goodwin.

Asia Track

Goodwin's Asia Track program is designed for summer associates who have a particular interest in pursuing a legal career in Asia. Native fluency in Mandarin Chinese is required. The Asia Track summer program involves spending eight to ten weeks in one of our U.S. offices and two to three weeks in our Hong Kong office.

Pro Bono

Pro bono work is one of the cornerstones of our firm. Pro bono matters are reviewed in the same way as billable matters, and pro bono hours are counted one-to-one for billable hour credit.

Diversity & Inclusion

Goodwin is committed to promoting diversity in our firm and the legal profession, as well as fostering an inclusive environment in which each attorney and staff member can excel and thrive. Diversity and inclusion are core values at Goodwin, and we believe that they make us stronger as a firm, as a provider of legal services and as an employer. It's also a matter of justice. We believe that equity demands a diverse workforce and legal profession, and we have a lengthy track record of enabling equal access to the legal system through our extraordinary pro bono efforts and our broad non-discrimination policies.

Inclusion@Goodwin, established in 2014 and led by the firm's Chairman, David Hashmall, drives the firm's diversity and inclusion strategic initiatives.

Additionally, we actively promote diversity and inclusion through our three affinity networks—CRED@Goodwin (Committee on Racial and Ethnic Diversity), Pride@Goodwin, and Women@Goodwin, which have local councils in each office that serve to build community, develop trainings, execute events, often with our clients, and provide support to historically underrepresented populations of our firm.

In addition, Goodwin developed a "Diversity and Inclusion Champion" initiative as part of the firm's comprehensive diversity and inclusion strategy, whereby each practice area identified leaders to serve as diversity and inclusion ambassadors. In addition to serving as role models of inclusive leadership, the Champions are teaming with the firm's diversity and inclusion professionals to create "Diversity and Inclusion Action Plans." Under the leadership of the Champions each practice area is developing, tracking, advancing toward, and reporting on its diversity and inclusion goals on an annual basis. This strategy empowers the practice areas to take responsibility for the development of their talent, and brings heightened awareness and accountability to how we approach matter staffing, while also creating a highly inclusive and diverse workplace.

Goodwin recently became one of 41 trailblazing law firms that achieved Diversity Lab's Mansfield certification after participating in and completing the inaugural one-year pilot.
