GOODWIN

At Goodwin, our approach to the business of law is as important as how we approach the practice of law. In particular, our co-ops are a critical part of the firm's success, spanning across 26 teams where they gain valuable experience while forming connections that serve as a spring board into their future careers.

Goodwin at a Glance

- Serving clients across the United States, Europe and Asia
- Providing corporate, litigation and regulatory & advisory services across the financial, life sciences, private equity, real estate and technology industries
- Helping 1,000+ pro bono clients per year who could not otherwise afford legal assistance
- Celebrating diversity, equity, and inclusion as a core value

We Invest in You By:

- Creating an innovative and collaborative environment for co-ops across all teams
- Offering extensive training to develop leadership and various skillsets
- Providing ability to work across different teams
- Encouraging conversations about diversity, equity and inclusion, and connecting them to learning and development opportunities

My time at Goodwin has provided me the opportunity to grow into a more confident professional!”

— Miranda Rodea, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Co-op

You Invest in Yourself By:

- Building connections for your career, whether in the legal industry or not
- Attending monthly events and speaking engagements that focus on the four pillars of service, networking, professional development and peer bonding
- Joining Goodwin's co-op LinkedIn page to network with past and present co-ops
- Applying for future career opportunities at Goodwin

My co-op experience has been truly rewarding, working with the Court Procedures Team is the most amazing learning experience I've had in college.”

– Emily Yixuan Qiao, Court Procedures Co-op

“Throughout my co-op at Goodwin, I have had the opportunity to build connections and relationships within and outside of my team. I could not have picked a better place for my first co-op. Everyone at Goodwin is eager to help and are all dedicated to our learning and experience.”

– Michael Mancuso, Talent Acquisition Experience Co-op
