Events and Milestones

Program Highlights

U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts Fellows Visit

In July, Goodwin's Alumni and Volunteerism teams proudly welcomed the Judge David S. Nelson and Judge Reginald C. Lindsay Fellows of the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts to the Boston office for an afternoon of legal career exploration. The Fellows experienced a powerful fireside chat with Senior Counsel Wayne Budd, who personally knew both Judge Nelson and Judge Lindsay, and engaged in an insightful panel discussion with panelists Travis Salters, Jessica Bridges, Chris Jones, Andi Goodman, and Vincent van der Puyl Lovett.

NY Power Lunch with Goodwin Alum Manoj Ramia, General Counsel at Digital Asset

Also in July, the New York office enjoyed an engaging and thought-provoking conversation between partner, Meghan Spillane and Goodwin alum, Manoj Ramia, General Counsel of Digital Asset and former Goodwin associate. Attendees walked away with recommendations for networking and cultivating authentic business relationships when outside of one's comfort zone, key strategies for understanding how to best support the needs of outside counsel, as well as insights on the fundamentals and regulatory landscape of blockchain and digital currency.

Massachusetts Black Lawyers Association Fall Law Student Reception

In October, the Goodwin Alumni Team sponsored the Massachusetts Black Lawyers Association (MBLA) Fall Law Student Reception. The event welcomed 1Ls to the area, reconnected with 2Ls and 3Ls, and introduced the MBLA as a valuable resource. Goodwin's Travis G. Salters spoke at the event, alongside Cherina D. Wright, Esq., AVP of Student Affairs at Suffolk University, and Tracey A. West, Executive Director of the Boston Lawyers Group.

Association of Corporate Counsel Professional Development Event

In partnership with the Northeast Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel, the Goodwin Alumni Engagement Team hosted a program titled "The High-Impact Counsel: Strategies for Efficiency, Innovation, and Influence." Goodwin alum Lalitha Gunturi, General Counsel, Corporate Secretary & Chief People Officer at Aras Corporation, spoke alongside Alex Aferiat, Director & Senior Managing Legal Counsel at Boston Consulting Group; Rashima Shukla, Corporate Counsel at PTC; and Paul Connors, Founding Attorney & President at Right Arrow Legal.

2025 Alumni Survey Results

Thank You for Participating in Our 2025 Alumni Survey!

We received many thoughtful responses from alumni across the U.S. and even a few from around the globe. Your feedback helps us identify new initiatives, enhance programming, and strengthen connections within our alumni community.

We're excited to put your insights into action and create even more opportunities for alumni engagement in 2026!

Goodwin Reconnect

Enjoy an Alumni Gathering on Goodwin!

A common theme expressed in the Alumni Survey results was the desire to socialize in smaller settings so you can continue to strengthen the relationships they formed while at Goodwin. The Alumni Engagement Team encourages you to consider participating in Goodwin Reconnect, a new initiative that offers you the opportunity to plan unique gatherings to reconnect with each other and your former Goodwin colleagues. Goodwin will cover the cost of a meetup, event, or activity to promote relationship-building over shared interests.

The activity can include a mix of alumni and current Goodwin lawyers in groups of up to 20 people. Activities could be lunch or happy hour, but we encourage you to be creative and consider other activities such as cooking classes, game nights or sporting events.

Once you have an activity and group assembled, a designated “point person” should submit their Goodwin Reconnect idea. The form will ask about the activity, participants, timing, and estimated cost. We look forward to bringing you back together!

In addition to his work at the firm, Ray served as a Captain in the Army and Judge Advocate General at the Pentagon. Ray was very proud of his—and his father’s—military service and was a strong supporter of the U.S. Armed Forces for his entire life. Outside of work, Ray cherished time with family and loved traveling and hiking with friends. Many of the friendships that enriched his life were formed at Goodwin, and he deeply valued the connections he maintained with so many of you over the years. Read More.

In addition to his work at the firm, he served for two years as an officer in the Navy at the end of the Korean conflict, followed by ten years of reserve duty.
