CONSENT ORDER

I. INTRODUCTION

This Consent Order (Order) is submitted jointly by the parties for the approval of and entry by the Court simultaneously with the filing of the United States' Complaint in this action. The Order resolves the claims of the United States that, during and between 2005 and 2009, the Defendant engaged in a pattern or practice of conduct in violation of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA), 15 U.S.C. §§ 1691-1691f, and the Fair Housing Act (FHA), 42 U.S.C. §§ 3601-3619, by discriminating on the basis of race and national origin in the extension of residential credit and in the making of residential real estate-related transactions.

There has been no factual finding or adjudication with respect to any matter alleged by the United States. The parties have entered into the Order to avoid the risks, expense, and burdens of litigation and to resolve voluntarily the claims in the United States' Complaint of the Defendant's alleged violations of federal fair lending laws.

II. BACKGROUND

SunTrust Mortgage has been one of the nation's largest mortgage lenders since SunTrust Bank's 1998 acquisition of Richmond-based Crestar Bank and Crestar Mortgage Corporation. From 2005-2009, SunTrust Mortgage annually originated between 120,000 and 200,000 mortgage loans with an annual principal value of more than $30 billion through its retail and wholesale channels. Throughout that period, SunTrust Mortgage offered nearly every type of mortgage loan product available in the market, and it generally concentrated on conforming prime loans.

In 2007, Federal Reserve System examiners initiated a fair lending review of SunTrust Mortgage's mortgage pricing practices. As a result of that review, the Federal Reserve Board ("FRB") determined that it had "reason to believe that SunTrust Mortgage Incorporated engaged in a pattern or practice of mortgage pricing discrimination based on race, color and national origin in violation of Section 701(a) of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act and the Fair Housing Act" for loans made during 2005 and 2006. Following that determination, and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1691e(g), the FRB referred the matter to the Department of Justice on December 3, 2009.

In its Complaint, the United States alleges that between 2005 and 2009, SunTrust Mortgage engaged in a pattern or practice of discrimination on the basis of race and national origin in violation of both the FHA and the ECOA based on the interest rates, fees, and costs paid by African-American and Hispanic borrowers who received loans from its retail and wholesale lending channels.

Defendant denies all the allegations and claims of a pattern or practice of discrimination in violation of the FHA and the ECOA as set forth in the United States' Complaint. Defendant asserts that at all times it conducted its lending in compliance with the letter and spirit of the fair lending laws and in a non-discriminatory manner. Defendant maintains that any differences in pricing were attributable to legitimate, non-discriminatory factors. Notwithstanding its disagreement with the allegations of the United States, Defendant has agreed to the entry of this order to resolve voluntarily the claims asserted by the United States in order to avoid the costs, risks, and burdens of litigation.

In 2009, Defendant implemented policies and monitoring that substantially lessened loan pricing disparities on the basis of race or national origin in Defendant's retail lending channel. Under the provisions of the Order, the Defendant agrees to maintain policies and procedures designed to ensure that the price charged for its residential loan products, including the portion of the price that reflects the discretion of the loan officer or mortgage broker, is set in a nondiscriminatory manner consistent with the requirements of the FHA and the ECOA. In addition, the Defendant will compensate certain Hispanic and African-American borrowers as provided herein.

III. REMEDIAL ORDER

1. Unless otherwise stated herein, the remedial provisions of the Order shall be implemented within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date of the Order and shall continue throughout its term. The Effective Date of the Order shall be the date on which it is approved and entered by the Court.

A. General Nondiscrimination Injunction

2. The Defendant, including all of its officers, employees, agents, assignees, successors in interest, and all those in active concert or participation with any of them, is hereby enjoined from the adoption, performance, or implementation of any policy, practice, or act that results in discrimination on the basis of race or national origin in the charging of loan prices, including the portion of the loan price that reflects the discretion of the loan officer or the compensation of mortgage brokers, to those who borrow money secured by residential real estate in violation of the FHA, or in violation of the ECOA.

B. Lending Policies and Procedures

3. Consistent with Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. § 1026.36(d), the Defendant shall prohibit, for all loans secured by residential real estate originated in its name, employees and mortgage brokers¹ from receiving, directly or indirectly, overages,² yield spread premiums, or other compensation in an amount that is based on any of the terms or conditions of a loan secured by residential real estate, including the annual percentage rate of interest charged to the borrower or the amount by which it varies from the par rate. This prohibition shall not limit compensation that is based on the principal amount of a loan, provided the compensation is based on a fixed percentage of the principal; however, such compensation may be subject to a minimum or maximum dollar amount. This prohibition also shall not limit the Defendant from allowing a borrower to finance, at the option of the borrower, including through principal or rate, any origination fees or costs, so long as such fees or costs do not vary based on the terms of the loan (other than the amount of the principal) or the borrower's decision about whether to finance such fees or costs.³

4. The Defendant shall maintain specific standards, substantially similar to those detailed in its the June 2012 Guidelines under the heading "Pricing and Compensation Practices: Retail and Consumer Direct Channels," which are designed to avoid unlawful discrimination by the Defendant, based on a borrower's race or national origin, for the assessment of all origination fees and costs it charges and retains for itself or pays to its employees on loans secured by residential real estate. For the duration of the Order, the Defendant shall continue to maintain its policy implemented on April 1, 2010 of prohibiting overages in its retail channel. The Defendant shall also maintain its policy of prohibiting subsidies exceeding 100 basis points (subject to the exceptions provided in the June 2012 Guidelines), and requiring employees to document the reason for any subsidy. Before funding any loan, the Defendant shall ensure it maintains documentation of compliance with the standards established to satisfy this Paragraph.

¹ The term "mortgage broker" in the Order follows the definition contained in 12 C.F.R. § 1026.36(a), and includes both natural persons and organizations.

² The terms "overage," "subsidy," and "total broker compensation" in the Order follow the definition contained in SunTrust Mortgage's "Fair and Responsible Banking Policy Implementation Guidelines" effective June 1, 2012 ("the June 2012 Guidelines"), as provided to the United States on May 9, 2012.

³ No term of this Consent Order will be interpreted to prevent the Defendant from complying with any federal statutory or regulatory requirement concerning employee or mortgage broker compensation or loan pricing.

5. The Defendant shall maintain specific standards, substantially similar to those detailed in its the June 2012 Guidelines under the heading "Pricing and Compensation Practices: Broker Channel," which are designed to avoid unlawful discrimination by the Defendant based on a borrower's race or national origin, for the total broker compensation paid to mortgage brokers on loans secured by residential real estate that are originated in the Defendant's name and that the Defendant underwrites, originates, or funds. For the duration of the Order, the Defendant shall continue to maintain its policy implemented in November 2009 of limiting total broker compensation to the higher of 3.5% of the loan amount or $3,000. The Defendant shall also maintain its policy that lender-paid compensation to brokers (including payments by the Defendant to a broker made out of loan proceeds) is an agreed-upon amount per loan that does not vary by loan and can only be changed on a quarterly basis. The Defendant shall ensure compliance with these standards is a part of any agreement that provides for a mortgage broker to submit loan applications to the Defendant. To the extent the standards established to satisfy this Paragraph allow mortgage brokers to exercise discretion in the amount of the total broker compensation, mortgage brokers will provide a written explanation for borrower-paid total broker compensation that exceeds 2.5% of the loan amount. Before funding any loan, the Defendant shall ensure it maintains documentation of compliance with the standards established to satisfy this Paragraph.

6. The Defendant shall require, for all loans secured by residential real estate originated in its name, all employees and mortgage brokers to comply with the requirements established in Paragraphs 3-5. The Defendant shall also require an appropriate manager, under the supervision of a designated senior official of the Defendant, to review compliance with these requirements and to ensure that discretionary loan prices do not vary materially by race or national origin without a legitimate nondiscriminatory explanation for such variation. In the event that Defendant receives or pays compensation in excess of what is permitted by the policies referenced in Paragraphs 3-5, an appropriate refund will be provided to the borrower in the form of a cash payment or credit to the borrower's account. All reviews shall be documented, and such documentation shall be retained for the term of the Order.

C. Monitoring Program

7. The Defendant for the duration of the Order shall maintain no less than its currently existing level of fair lending auditing and monitoring detailed in SunTrust Mortgage's "Fair and Responsible Banking: Mortgage Pricing Regression Analysis (Retail)" and "Fair and Responsible Banking" Mortgage Pricing Regression Analysis (Broker)" procedure documents last reviewed on May 1, 2012 ("the May 2012 Procedures"), as provided to the United States on May 11 and 14, 2012.

8. Within 30 days of the Effective Date of the Order, the Defendant shall have in place a monitoring program designed to ensure compliance with the Order. The program shall be designed to monitor, for all loans secured by residential real estate originated in its name, for potential unexplained disparities by a borrower's race or national origin in the price charged for its residential loan products. At a minimum, the Defendant shall monitor APRs, overages, subsidies, and total broker compensation. The monitoring shall include, but not be limited to, an analysis designed to detect significant unexplained disparities in the price charged for its residential loan products by race and national origin, with respect to all loans secured by residential real estate originated in the Defendant's name. Such analysis will be conducted at the national level and at a metropolitan statistical area (MSA) level for MSAs where the Defendant annually originates at least 100 loans, including at least 30 loans to non-Hispanic whites and 30 loans to either African-Americans or Hispanics.

9. The Defendant's senior managers shall conduct a quarterly review of the monitoring program. A report on the review shall be presented to the appropriate committee of the Defendant's Board of Directors for approval not later than 60 days after the end of each quarter.

a. In the event that any such review discloses statistically significant at the 95% level disparities at the national level or in any MSA, the Defendant shall attempt to determine the reason(s) for those disparities and shall promptly take corrective action to address significant disparities that were caused by a policy or practice of the Defendant, and not justified by legitimate business need. Corrective action shall include, as warranted, financial remediation for borrowers, modifications to the Defendant's pricing policies and/or monitoring programs as appropriate, and education, discipline or termination of employee(s) or mortgage broker relationship(s). The Defendant shall document all such disparities, determinations, and actions taken and shall provide a summary of the quarterly reviews and any documentation and analysis relating thereto to the United States on a semi-annual basis.⁴

b. In the event that any such review discloses statistically significant disparities with respect to any particular employee, branch office, or mortgage broker, the Defendant shall require the employee, branch manager, or mortgage broker to explain the non-discriminatory reason(s) for those disparities. If there is no reasonable, nonracial explanation for the noted disparities, the Defendant shall require the employee or branch manager to take prompt corrective action to address the disparities, and the Defendant shall take prompt appropriate action with respect to mortgage brokers, up to and including termination of the broker relationship.

If the United States raises any objections to the Defendant's determinations or remedial actions, the Defendant and the United States shall meet and confer to consider appropriate steps to address the concerns raised by the United States' review. If the parties are unable to come to an agreement regarding such objections, any party may bring the dispute to this Court for resolution.

⁴ All material required by the Order to be sent to the United States shall be sent by commercial overnight delivery service addressed as follows: Chief, Housing and Civil Enforcement Section, Civil Rights Division, U.S. Department of Justice, 1800 G Street NW, Suite 7002, Washington, DC 20006, Attn: DJ 188-79-19, or by facsimile to 202-514-1116. The Defendant may redact portions based on an assertion of attorney-client privilege from any materials required by the Order to be sent to the United States or to be subject to review by the United States, or, upon notice to the United States, it may withhold materials based on an assertion of attorney-client privilege applying to an entire document. If the United States raises any objections to the Defendant's claim of privilege, the Defendant and the United States shall meet and confer to resolve the dispute. If the parties are unable to come to a resolution, the United States may ask this Court to determine whether the claim of privilege is legally correct.

D. Borrower Disclosures

10. The Defendant shall post and prominently display in each location where it receives loan applications a notice of nondiscrimination that satisfies the requirements of 24 C.F.R. Part 110.

E. Equal Credit Opportunity Training Program

11. Within 90 days of the Effective Date of the Order, the Defendant shall provide access to a copy of the Order and the policies referenced therein to its management officials and employees who participate in taking applications for, originating, or pricing loans secured by residential real estate, including employees who have significant contact with or oversight of mortgage brokers. The Defendant shall provide access to a copy of the Order and the policies referenced therein to each new management official or employee whose responsibilities include those set forth in the preceding sentence within 30 days of beginning his or her employment in that position.

12. Within 150 days of the Effective Date of the Order, and annually thereafter for the duration of the Order, the Defendant shall provide equal credit opportunity training to its management officials and employees who participate in taking applications for, originating, or pricing loans secured by residential real estate, including employees who have significant contact with or oversight of mortgage brokers. The Defendant shall provide equal credit opportunity training to each new management official or employee whose responsibilities include those set forth in the preceding sentence within 90 days of beginning his or her employment in that position.

13. During the equal credit opportunity training, the Defendant shall provide to each participant training on the terms of the Order, the policies referenced therein, the requirements of the FHA, the ECOA, and his or her responsibilities under each. The content of the training program required by this Paragraph shall be approved in advance by the United States. Any expenses associated with this training program shall be borne by the Defendant. At the conclusion of the training program, the Defendant will require each employee to successfully complete an assessment which demonstrates that the employee was provided access to a copy of the Order and the policies referenced therein, understands his or her legal responsibility not to discriminate, and has completed the equal credit opportunity training.

14. The Defendant shall offer all mortgage brokers who submit applications to the Defendant for loans secured by residential real estate the opportunity to undergo fair lending training similar to the training described in Paragraph 13. The Defendant shall retain for the duration of the Order documentation of any training conducted or requests for training made pursuant to this Paragraph, and make such documentation available to the United States upon request.

F. Satisfaction of United States' Claims for Monetary Relief

15. The Defendant shall deposit in an interest-bearing escrow account the total sum of $21 million to compensate for alleged monetary damages aggrieved persons nationwide may have suffered as a result of the alleged violations of the FHA and the ECOA (the "Settlement Fund"). Title to this account shall specify that it is "for the benefit of allegedly aggrieved persons pursuant to Order of the Court in United States v. SunTrust Mortgage, Inc." The Defendant shall provide written verification of the deposit to the United States within 5 days of the Effective Date of the Order. Any interest that accrues shall become part of the Settlement Fund and be utilized and disposed of as set forth herein.

16. The United States has requested from the Defendant information and data it reasonably believes will assist in identifying allegedly aggrieved persons and determining any damages. Such information and data shall be used by the United States only for the law enforcement purposes of implementing this Order. Within 90 days of the date on which the United States provides an electronic file specifying the loans for which it requests data, the Defendants shall supply, to the extent that it is within the control of the Defendant, the Defendant's parent, or any entity owned by the Defendant's parent, the requested information and data. To the extent that the information is not within the control of those parties, the Defendant shall, within 90 days of receipt of such request, supply any data in the control of those parties that identifies other parties that may have that the information. The United States shall, upon reasonable notice, be allowed access to mortgage loan files and borrower contact information contained in servicing records of the Defendant, the Defendant's parent, or any entity owned by the Defendant's parent for loans the Defendant originated between 2005 and 2009 to verify the accuracy of the data provided and to otherwise identify persons entitled to the payments from the Settlement Fund.

17. Within 60 days of entry of the Order, the Defendant shall enter into a contract retaining a Settlement Administrator ("Administrator"), subject to approval by the United States, to conduct the activities set forth in the following Paragraphs. The Defendant shall bear all costs and expenses of the Administrator, and the Defendant's contract with the Administrator shall require the Administrator comply with the provisions of the Order as applicable to the Administrator.⁵ The Administrator's contract shall require the Administrator to work cooperatively with the United States in the conduct of its activities, including reporting regularly to and providing all reasonably requested information to the United States. The Defendant shall allow the Administrator access to mortgage loan files and borrower contact information contained in servicing records of the Defendant, the Defendant's parent, or any entity owned by the Defendant's parent for loans the Defendant originated between 2005 and 2009 for the purposes of accomplishing its duties under the Order. The Administrator's contract shall require the Administrator to comply with all confidentiality and privacy restrictions applicable to the party who supplied the information and data to the Administrator.

⁵ In the event the United States has reason to believe that the Administrator is not materially complying with the terms of its contract with the Defendant, the United States and the Defendant shall meet and confer for the purpose of mutually agreeing upon a course of action to effect the Administrator's material compliance with its contract with the Defendant. In the event that the United States and the Defendant are unable to agree upon a course of action to effect the Administrator's material compliance with its contract with the Defendant, the parties may present the matter to the Court.

18. The United States shall identify allegedly aggrieved persons with respect to its race and national origin discrimination claims within 90 days of receipt of all the information and data it requested. The United States shall provide a list of allegedly aggrieved persons to the Defendant and the Administrator.

19. The Administrator's contract shall require the Administrator to make its best efforts, using all reasonable methods, to locate each identified allegedly aggrieved person and obtain such information as the United States reasonably considers necessary from each. The Administrator's contract shall require the Administrator to complete this responsibility within a period of 6 months from the date the United States provides the list described in Paragraph 18, subject to an extension of time as provided by Paragraphs 23 and 31. The Administrator's contract shall require the Administrator, as part of its operation, to establish cost-free means for allegedly aggrieved persons to contact it, such as email and a toll-free telephone number.

20. The United States shall specify the amount each allegedly aggrieved person identified in Paragraph 18 and located by the Administrator shall receive from the Settlement Fund no later than 120 days after the Administrator's deadline for locating aggrieved persons in Paragraph 19 has passed. The United States shall provide the compensation list to the Administrator.

21. The Administrator's contract shall require the Administrator to send releases, with language approved by the United States and the Defendant as set forth in Appendix A, to allegedly aggrieved persons (hereafter, "Releases"). After receipt of executed releases, the Administrator's contract shall require the Administrator promptly to deliver payments to those persons in amounts determined by the United States as described in Paragraph 20. The Administrator's identification and payment responsibility may take place on a rolling basis with approval from the United States.

22. The Administrator's contract shall require the Administrator to set forth reasonable deadlines, subject to approval of the United States, so that the compensation is distributed and checks are presented for payment or become void prior to the date that is 24 months from the date the Administrator begins to locate allegedly aggrieved persons pursuant to Paragraph 19.

23. Payments from the Settlement Fund to allegedly aggrieved persons shall be subject to the following conditions, provided that the details in administration of the Settlement Fund set forth in Paragraphs 16-22, can be modified by agreement of the parties and without further Court approval:

(a) No allegedly aggrieved person shall be paid any amount from the Settlement Fund until he or she has executed and delivered to the Defendant a Release; and

(b) The total amount paid by the Defendant collectively to the allegedly aggrieved persons shall not exceed the amount of the Settlement Fund, including accrued interest.

24. All money not distributed to allegedly aggrieved persons from the Settlement Fund, including accrued interest, within 24 months from the date the Administrator begins to locate allegedly aggrieved persons pursuant to Paragraph 19 shall be distributed to qualified organization(s) that provide services including credit and housing counseling (including assistance in obtaining loan modification and preventing foreclosure), legal representation of borrowers seeking to obtain a loan modification or to prevent foreclosure, financial literacy, and other related programs targeted at African-American and Hispanic potential and former homeowners in communities where the Complaint alleges significant discrimination occurred against African-American and Hispanic borrowers. Recipient(s) of such funds must not be related to the Defendant, the Defendant's parent, or any entity owned by the Defendant's parent. The Defendant will consult with and obtain the non-objection of the United States in selecting recipient(s) of these funds and the amount to be distributed to each, and the parties shall obtain the Court's approval prior to distribution of any remainder of the Settlement Fund's assets. The Defendant shall require each recipient to submit to the Defendant and the United States a detailed report on how funds are utilized within one year after the funds are distributed.

25. The Defendant shall not be entitled a set-off, or any other reduction, of the amount of payments to aggrieved persons because of any debts owed by the identified persons. The Defendant also shall not refuse to make a payment based on a release of legal claims or loan modification previously signed by any aggrieved persons.

G. Complaint Resolution Program

26. During the duration of the Order, the Defendant shall maintain a complaint resolution program to address consumer complaints alleging discrimination regarding pricing of loans secured by residential real estate originated in the Defendant's name. Documentation regarding such complaint resolution program, including documentation of individual complaints and resolutions, if any, shall be made available to the United States through the semi-annual reports referenced in Paragraph 29. A person shall not be deemed ineligible for the complaint resolution program on the basis of having executed a Release, but there is no requirement under the Order that any complaint necessarily be resolved for or against the Defendant or that any particular form or amount of relief be provided to any complainant.

IV. EVALUATING AND MONITORING COMPLIANCE

27. For the duration of the Order, the Defendant shall retain all records relating to its obligations hereunder as well as its compliance activities as set forth herein. The United States shall have the right to review and copy such records upon request, including loan files and electronic data for loans secured by residential real estate made during the duration of the Order.

28. The Defendant shall provide to the United States the data on its lending that is submitted to the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) pursuant to the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act and the Community Reinvestment Act. The data will be provided in the same format in which it is presented to the FFIEC, within 30 days of its submission to the FFIEC each year, for the duration of the Order, including the record layout.

29. In addition to the submission of any other plans or reports specified in the Order, the Defendant shall submit semi-annual reports to the United States on its progress in completing the requirements of the Order. Each such report shall provide a complete account of the Defendant's actions to comply with each requirement of the Order during the previous 6 months, an objective assessment of the extent to which each quantifiable obligation was met, an explanation of why any particular component fell short of meeting its goal for the previous 6 months, and any recommendations for additional actions to achieve the goals of the Order. Each such report shall detail any changes made to the June 2012 Guidelines or the May 2012

Procedures during the previous 6 months. The Defendant shall submit its first report no later than 180 days after the Effective Date of the Order, and every 180 days thereafter for so long as the Order is in effect. In addition, if applicable, the Defendant shall attach to the semi-annual reports representative copies of training materials disseminated pursuant to the Order.

V. ADMINISTRATION

30. The Order shall terminate 3 months after the submission of the Defendant's sixth semi-annual report due under Paragraph 29 to the United States, except that if all the actions required by Paragraphs 15 through 25 have not been completed, Paragraphs 15 to 25 and this section will continue in effect for an additional six months. Notwithstanding the above, the Order may be extended further upon motion of the United States to the Court, for good cause shown.

31. Any time limits for performance fixed by the Order may be extended by mutual written agreement of the parties. Except as provided by Paragraph 23, other modifications to the Order may be made only upon approval of the Court, upon motion by either party. The parties recognize that there may be changes in relevant and material factual circumstances during the duration of the Order which may impact the accomplishment of its goals. The parties agree to work cooperatively to discuss and attempt to agree upon any proposed modifications to the Order resulting therefrom.

32. The Order shall be binding on the Defendant, including all its officers, employees, agents, assignees, and successors in interest, and all those in active concert or participation with any of them. The Order shall consider loans originated by a joint venture operated by the Defendant, which are also funded by the Defendant, to be loans originated by employees of the Defendant. In the event the Defendant seeks to transfer or assign all or part of its operations, and the successor or assign intends on carrying on the same or similar use, as a condition of sale, the Defendant shall obtain the written accession of the successor or assign to any obligations remaining under the Order for its remaining term.

33. Nothing in the Order shall excuse the Defendant's compliance with any currently or subsequently effective provision of law or order of a regulator with authority over the Defendant that imposes additional obligations on the Defendant.

34. The parties agree that, as of the date of entry of the Order, litigation is not "reasonably foreseeable" concerning the matters described in the Order. To the extent that either party previously implemented a litigation hold to preserve documents, electronically stored information, or things related to the matters described in the Order, the party is no longer required to maintain such a litigation hold.

35. In the event that any disputes arise about the interpretation of or compliance with the terms of the Order, the parties shall endeavor in good faith to resolve any such dispute between themselves before bringing it to this Court for resolution. If the United States believes that the Defendant has violated any provision of the Order, it will provide the Defendant written notice thereof and allow 30 days to resolve the alleged violation before presenting the matter to this Court. In the event of either a failure by the Defendant to perform in a timely manner any act required by the Order or an act by the Defendant in violation of any provision hereof, the United States may move this Court to impose any remedy authorized by law or equity.

36. The Defendant's compliance with the terms of the Order shall fully and finally resolve all claims by the United States of discrimination, including under the FHA and ECOA, that are raised in the Complaint's allegations of a pattern or practice, in loans originated between January 1, 2005 and December 31, 2009 by the Defendant, of discrimination against African-American and Hispanic borrowers based on racial and national origin disparities in loan prices, including all claims for equitable relief and monetary damages and penalties arising from those claims, as well as any claims under any other legal theory based on the same allegations of discriminatory conduct addressed in the Complaint. The Order does not release claims for practices not addressed in the Complaint's allegations, including claims that may be held or are currently under investigation by any federal agency. The Order does not release any claims not related to discrimination under any statute.

37. Each party to the Order shall bear its own costs and attorneys' fees associated with this litigation.

38. The Court shall retain jurisdiction for the duration of the Order to enforce the terms of the Order, after which time the case shall be dismissed with prejudice.

SO ORDERED, this ___ day of _____, 2012.
